

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

27th June 2007

Dear Mr. McCully,

The Queen wishes me to write and thank you for the information you have sent on the late Marjorie Lawrence, CBE, the centenary of whose birth was commemorated on 17th February.

Her Majesty thought it kind of you to enclose extracts from Miss Lawrence's autobiography, and was pleased to be reminded of her visit to Buckingham Palace all those years ago.

The Queen was interested to hear about the Marjorie Lawrence Centennial Celebration, and I am to thank you once again.

Yours sincerely,

Lady-In-Waiting

Mr. J. McCully